Royal wedding picnic

PRESS RELEASE

BROADWATER ROYAL WEDDING PICNIC

ENTERTAINMENT LINEUP ANNOUNCED!

MASSIVE PHOTO OPPORTUNITY - FAMILY EVENT!

Only two weeks until the Royal Wedding Picnic on Friday 29th April 2011. The Broadwater Royal Wedding Picnic working group have been working really hard to provide four hours of FREE non-stop entertainment!

Dave Benson Phillips (Disney presenter) will be bringing his gunge tanks and Tim Loughton MP, Deputy Mayor, Ann Barlow and Cllr Alan Rice have each agreed to be gunged if £500 is raised via our voting system (not alternative)! Each vote is £1 and all you have to do is go to the Broadwater Royal Wedding Picnic Facebook Page and click on the person you want to be gunged and pay your £1 donation online. All profits raised from this will go to Broadwater Community Association.

Other competitions with prizes include: Chuck the bouquet the furthest, Mr & Mrs, and the Best Dress Bride and Bridegroom competitions. So turn up in your wedding outfits and you never know ...

We have also planned a 'mass wedding blessing' so if any married couples out there are thinking of renewing their vows - this is your first step! Peter Irwin-Clarke, vicar of St Mary's Church in Broadwater, will be performing the ceremony.

The line up for the event has now been confirmed. All you have to do now is pack your picnic, watch the wedding, get in the mood and come on down and enjoy this fantastic FREE event! There will be burgers, ice cream and coffee concessions there, as well as face painting and charity stalls.
